Organisational profile:

When was your organisation established?

What are the main activities of your organisation?

OLT works to seek sustainable solutions for the long-term survival of the orangutan in the wild. We support the efforts of other organisations and institutions in the field in a variety of areas including law enforcement, biodiversity surveying, rehabilitation and release of orangutans, and forest restoration. We seek to build partnerships to address the drivers of deforestation including the clearing of orangutan habitat for agricultural use. For this objective, we are very active in the campaign for sustainable palm oil.
