Trademark Related4.1 Do you use or plan to use the RSPO Trademark on your own brand of products?

No

Please explain why

As a 99% private Label manufacturing Company, we do not have any influence on the use of the RSPO-Trademark on the packaging of our customers. We are Aware of the fact, that some european retailers are implementing the Trademark on their packaging.

For our small brand, we do not see any benefit of using the RSPO Trademark.

1) Continue to fulfill the requirements of using sustainable palm oil for the private label products we launch on european market. German retailers are absolutely demanding RSPO certified Palmoil.

2) Prepare our production site in order to gain the RSPO SG certificate in 2018/2019 again. Especially the Training and instruction of our staff is a Focus.

3) Change the last MB-Products to SG.

4) Making sure new products and new developments are directly sourced in SG-Quality.

Comment:

To achieve all relevant parameters for RSPO certification, we focused mainly on the official RSPO documents such as "RSPO Lieferkettenzertifizierungsstandard" from November 2014 in the German language. Furthermore the "RSPO Principles and Criteria for the Production of Sustainable Palm Oil 2013".

We also issued concrete process documentation that include the Tasks of all related departments in our company.

Challenges

1 What significant economic, social or environmental obstacles have you encountered in the production, procurement, use and/or promotion of CSPO and what efforts did you make to mitigate or resolve them?

Currently the hardest part for us, is to change all ingredients from MB to SG, as some local/small suppliers are "just" MB certified. Furthermore the prices of our suppliers are very volatile, so it is hard for us to estimate Price for next season.

2 In addition to the actions already reported in this ACOP how has your organization supported the vision of RSPO to transform markets in other ways? (e.g. Funding; Engagement with key stakeholders; Business to business education/outreach)

We fully Support the RSPO Vision/Strategy for sustainable Palm oil and Focus on 100% SG-Products.
