Challenges

1 What significant economic, social or environmental obstacles have you encountered in the production, procurement, use and/or promotion of CSPO and what efforts did you make to mitigate or resolve them?

The most frequent obstacles are the economic ones due to the costs of the studies in the case of the suppliers a project was generated to obtain financing. In the environmental issue, ignorance of the rules leads to non-compliance, for which training is generated on environmental standards. Another important issue is the labor contracting in small growers which are done in an informal way, for this is done advice on labor issues to achieve fulfillment to satisfaction.

2 How has your organization supported the vision of RSPO to transform markets? (e.g. Funding; Engagement with key stakeholders; Business to business education/outreach)

Spaces are managed with communities for environmental education, social plans are managed as the creation of parks that seek to encourage spaces for sports, recreation and culture, additional the company has projects of houses of social interest in the community of Minas our community of influence.
