3.5 Which countries that your organization operates in do the above own-brand commitments cover?

Japan

3.6 How do you proactively promote RSPO and RSPO certified sustainable palm oil and oil palm products to your customers?

Palm Oil derivatives (ex. palm fatty acid) users in Japan don't know about RSPO so much. We promote about RSPO to the customers on the sales meeting.

Trademark Use

4.1 Do you use or plan to use the RSPO trademark on your own brand products?

No

If target has not been met, please explain why:

We don't produce own product.

We import fatty acid, RSOP certified from South East Asia, and sell to our customer. We cannot amend the product label by our consideration.

Actions for Next Reporting Period5.1 Outline actions that you will take in the coming year to promote the use of RSPO certified sustainable palm oil and oil palm products along the supply chain

We will continue to promote RSPO to our customers and other stakeholders on our usual business activity. And we will publish about RSPO on our company website.

Reasons for Non-Disclosure of Information6.1 If you have not disclosed any of the above information please indicate the reasons why confidential

Application of Principles & Criteria for all members sectors7.1 Do you have organizational policies that are in line with the RSPO P&C, such as:

- Water, land, energy and carbon footprints
- Land Use Rights
- Ethical conduct and human rights
- Labour rights
- Stakeholder engagement
- None of the above

7.2 What best practice guidelines or information has your organization provided in the past year to facilitate the uptake of RSPO certified sustainable palm oil and oil palm products? What languages are these guidelines available in?Comment:

We educated our worker about RSPO by WWF website. But we don't have any educational document made by ourselves.

Related link: www.wwf.or.jp/activities/resource/cat1305/rsports/7.3. Your answers above indicate that you are not yet using 100% RSPO certified palm oil and oil palm products. Do you have plans to immediately cover the gap using Book & Claim?

No

Please explain why:

Most of the customers in Japanese market don't requires RSPO certification, they don't want the higher price products by Book & Claim.

GHG Footprint8.1 Are you currently reporting any GHG footprint?

No

Please state if you have any future plans to do so?

We are trading company, so our gas emission is much smaller than manufacturers. But we make effort to decrease the usage of electricity, according to ISO 14001.

Support for Smallholders

9.1 Are you currently supporting any independent smallholder groups?

No

Do you have any future plans to support independent smallholders?

No

Challenges

1 What significant economic, social or environmental obstacles have you encountered in the production, procurement, use and/or promotion of CSPO and what efforts did you make to mitigate or resolve them?

We are trading company, not manufacturer. So we don't use the product RSPO certified, we cannot resolve the problem only by ourselves. If we will ave any problem, we will talk about it with our suppliers and customers, and play our roll for resolving the problem.

2 In addition to the actions already reported in this ACOP how has your organization supported the vision of RSPO to transform markets in other ways? (e.g. Funding; Engagement with key stakeholders; Business to business education/outreach)

Japanese oleochemical manufacturer decided that their products will get RSPO certification near future. We promote their products for our customers.
