Challenges

1 What significant economic, social or environmental obstacles have you encountered in the production, procurement, use and/or promotion of CSPO and what efforts did you make to mitigate or resolve them?

No significant barrier. Price is an issue for customers. it takes time to educate them. A social challenge we face in engaging with businesses and customers is access to consistent, reliable, and objective information that engages the known concerns of the users. This is a challenging area where we could use RSPO's help.

2 In addition to the actions already reported in this ACOP how has your organization supported the vision of RSPO to transform markets in other ways? (e.g. Funding; Engagement with key stakeholders; Business to business education/outreach)

We engage with businesses' and customers' concerns relating to palm oil in a timely manner and to the best of our knowledge.
