We have encountered numerous challenges with compliance requirements throughout our network and with customer knowledge of sustainable palm oil. Increased cross functional teams have been created to accommodate and address process and documentation requirements to meet RSPO audit criteria. It has become a very complex process within our organization. Traceability through end customer extends beyond our sphere of control.

2 How has your organization supported the vision of RSPO to transform markets? (e.g. Funding; Engagement with key stakeholders; Business to business education/outreach)

We have conducted numerous customer and supplier meetings to facilitate the knowledge and learning of RSPO and its criteria.
