At present we haven't had any RSPO transaction, but we continue to inform our customers about the RSPO project and its purpose.

Our company is organized to receive RSPO products and to deal with proper attention and we are still RSPO certificated.

Every year, we train all our employees in order to update them about the RSPO project and in order to give them right information about the rules for the handling of the RSPO product to be ready, in case of RSPO transaction. We monitor the market for RSPO, asking our suppliers availability and prices, even if we had no transaction of product.
