Challenges

1 What significant economic, social or environmental obstacles have you encountered in the production, procurement, use and/or promotion of CSPO and what efforts did you make to mitigate or resolve them?

The main challenges we have faced in Colombia for the promotion of CSPO have been: 1. Engaging potential buyers for Colombian CSPO. Currently more than 80% of the production of Colombian palm oil is sold in the internal market, and awareness about the RSPO certification is still low. 2. Limited number of accredited certification bodies (CB). There is a limited number of accredited CBs with offices in Latin America. This limits the number of companies that can go through the certification process in the region, or extends the timeframe of the certification process. 3. Limited resources for smallholders certification. 4. Low awareness by the RSPO of Colombian environmental and social practices and its legal framework.

2 How would you qualify RSPO standards as compared to other parallel standards?

- Cost Effective:
  No

- Robust:
  Yes

- Simpler to Comply to:
  No

3 How has your organization supported the vision of RSPO to transform markets? (e.g. Funding; Engagement with key stakeholders; Business to business education/outreach)

During 2015, Fedepalma was part of the National Interpretation Task Force (NITF), that continued in the process of developing the Colombian NI. Fedepalma is also implementing a 5-year GEF project on Biodiversity Conservation in Oil Palm Regions, and developed the following activities related to RSPO’s vision: (i) HCV assessments for 6 palm oil companies; and (ii) started developing a guideline for HCV assessments on oil palm plantations for RSPO certification, with WWF, Proforest and the HCV Network.
